Entering St. Barth

All Covid-19 entry protocols for St. Barth have been lifted at this time. It is the individual traveler's responsibility to check the requirements of any airport they may pass through when connecting to St. Barth.

If you are connecting via St. Martin their individual testing requirements which may be reviewed here.

If you are connecting via San Juan their individual vaccination or testing requirements which may be reviewed here.

St. Barth Properties looks forward to welcoming you back for your Dream Vacation. See you soon.
